Park Meeting to be a Big One.

Specialists Will be Present—Entertainments Made to Entertain the Gang.

At Park, N. J., June 29.—

The general committee of arrangement of the reception entertainment of the delegates to the tenth annual convention of the National Editorial Association, which opens here on Saturday, held a final meeting today to report to the executive committee, which body has perfected the arrangements and will carry them out. Mayor Frank Tenbroeck, the general committee, advised that the delegates numbered about a thousand editors and other relatives would arrive during the next two days.
Probably more than the sum of the outlay as necessary to the delegates has been made, and the subscription has been called in. The use of the auditorium, which will seat about 1,000 people, had been given to the convention.

Noted newspaper men would be the delegates. The Arrangement would be headed by C. Hughes, of the Tucson Colorado delegation by J. L. Power, of the Denver Republican delegation by McLennan, of the Topeka Journal, the Mississippi delegation by J. L. Power, of the Jackson Ledger, the Wisconsin delegation by Hon. John Hicks, of the North Western, the Illinois delegation by Hon. I. A. Ewing, of the Commonwealth Review.

Mayor also reported that life associations and printers' concerns had voluntarily given banquets, ocean trips and entertainments to the delegates. Other reports were made by the finance and press committees. The special train for the delegates from all the points between Chicago and the coast will reach here tonight.

RANDOLPH CHURCHILL.

He Will Come on a Visit to this Country.

New York, June 29.—The announcement that Lord Randolph Churchill, who at one time promised to become the leader of the conservative parliamentary party in England, will shortly visit this country on his way for a tour of the world, has scarcely created a ripple in society's circles. When he was last here a few years ago with his American wife, formerly Miss Jennie Jerome, he was a social lion and entertainments innumerable were given in his honor. Since that time, however, he has gradually fallen in poor repute, largely through his eccentricities and questionable habits.
A few months ago he made an exhibition of himself in the house of commons that created a national sensation, and was regarded as putting an end, for a time at least, to his usefulness as a legislator. His tour of the world is undertaken at the explicit command of his physician. He will not be accompanied by his wife, who is now shining as the bright particular star of the Marlborough house set, or the circle composed of the particular intimates of the Prince of Wales.

The Golden Jubilee.

Detroit, Mich., June 29.—The golden jubilee of the Church of St.
Peter's and Paul's, the leading Jesuit parish of the state, is being mass was celebrated this morning, a large number of priests from this and the neighboring dioceses participating. This afternoon the parishioners will give a reception to the clergy of the church.

BETTER BUSINESS.

Improvements Noted in Many Lines, East and West.

New York, June 29.—The reports to the commercial agencies tend toward confirming the views expressed last week concerning a ray of light in the business world. Considerable improvement is noted in retail business of many lines East and West, and this in turn had its effect upon wholesale and manufacturing industries. The outlook for the textile trade in New England is also brighter, although the improvement cannot as yet be regarded as pronounced. The termination of the coal strike will have a good influence on trade in country districts as soon as the next pay day is reached.

Worn Out in Harness.

In the harness of every day business work men and women wear out prematurely. For some of us it is not easy, for others, again, it is impossible to get out of harness. It is the inflexible yoke the strongly forged unbreakable shackles of imperative servitude needful to ourselves and those most dear to us. The weight of it often bows many of us into the grave before our time, but it is undoubtedly true that there is a means of rendering the burden less onerous, and of mitigating the ailments that unrelenting toil—especially of a sedentary kind—has a tendency to produce.
Overworked clerks in counting houses, mill operatives, bookkeepers, type-writers and others testify to the reviving, restorative effects of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and its power of renewing physical and mental energy when overtaken and on the wane. Dyspepsia, falling vigor, rheumatism, bowel and kidney complaints, yield to this beneficent medicine, which is a preventive of malaria and counter-acts the effects of exposure in inclement weather.
